

1. What does aperture priority do?
2. What does changing the aperture setting on the camera accomplish physically on the camera (excluding the images)
3. Find a graphical representation of multiple f-stops starting with f 1.8 and ending with f 22
4. What does changing the aperture setting on the camera do to the images. Use examples of your images.
5. In your own words explain when and why you would use the aperture priority setting on the camera.